English Learner Added Authorization (CLAD/CTEL)

The CLAD (Crosscultural, Language and Academic Development) through CTEL (California Teacher of English Learners) program is designed for those individuals who hold an active and valid California teaching credential and need to add the CLAD authorization. This six-course specialization provides quality training in the instruction of K-12 subject matter to English language learners in public, charter, and private schools. Upon completion of the program, candidates are recommended to the CCTC for the CLAD authorization.

The curriculum consists of an introduction course, four core courses, and a final portfolio course.

Format: 100% Online
